

CAMERATA BOTTLE LIST --- DECEMBER

DID SOMEONE SAY CHARDON-HEY-HEY!?!?

'Tis the time of year for some full bodied white wines...Check out all of the new Chardonnay's we have in the building on page 6. You can compare some New World beauties like the Colene Clemens with some Old World Burgundy's...The Parcellaires St. Aubin is a show-stopper, and at an incredible value!

We are also getting ready for Sparkling Wine Season so don't miss reading through our Champagnes and Bubbles pages either!

Most exciting however, we just recieved our yearly Madeira allocations!!! So flip to page 12 to check out the new Vinatage Barbeito's and D'Oliveras we have available. Don't forget about our awesome Sherry selections as well if you are feeling like a fortified wine, there are some super exciting options there as well, and what better way to warm up in the winter than with a fortified wine?!?

RADIKON

In the Friuli region of Northern Italy, the history of skin contact wines goes back hundreds of years. Radikon is an exemplary representation of beautiful winemaking that can come from this area where tradition trumps national borders. Radikon is not necessarily a traditionalist however. Rather than using ancient vinification vessels such as anfora (terra cotta clay vessels), all of their wine is vinified in Slavonian Oak barrels (famously used in Piedmontese wines as well). These funky and fun gems have a cult following so try 'em out and see what the fuss is all about!

19C. Jakot , Tocai Friulano, Venezia-Giulia, Italy, 2018 (500ml)	95
20C. Slatnik , Chardonnay/Tocai Friuliano, Venezia-Giulia, Italy, 2021, (750mL bottle)	105

RED WINES

LIGHT-BODIED

What makes a red wine light in body? A million different things including but not limited to cooler climate, thin-skinned grapes, carbonic maceration and tannin extraction (these wines don't have much) Many of these are even more outstanding with a slight chill!

1F. Jeff Carrel: En Coteaux , Pinot Noir, Pays d'Oc, Vin de Pays, France, 2020	38

There is evidence that Celts in Britain made cider from crab apples as long ago as 3000 BCE. Cider production in Spain, particularly in the northern regions of Asturias and the Basque Country, dates back to pre-Roman times; today, in Asturias, cider is called “sidra” while in Basque it’s known as “sagardoa”, and both regions have a strong tradition of producing and consuming this tart, naturally fermented cider, often served from a porrón, a unique pouring vessel allowing the beverage to be served from a height to aerate it. The origins of the cider in France and Normandy, date back to the 6th century.

A Camerata tradition has long been to have an expansive selection of quality Madeira wines - Many people are only familiar with Madeira as a cooking wine but it is indeed so so much more. This fortified wine is basically the Superhero of wines...it is impervious to time and maintains its acidity for centuries. This is the moment you should ask yourself...when was the last time you had something from 1907 in your mouth?

SHERRY

A complicated beverage with unique styles and flavors that vary from dry & crisp, to oxidative & nutty, to roasty, toasty & sweet. These wines can compliment both savory and sweet dishes. This is a wine region with deep history and we are featuring Bodegas that showcase the quality of the smaller producers rather than the large co-ops that dominate much of this region. This is one of the most iconic, yet misunderstood wines in the world...so please ask us which style you might enjoy and if you want a real treat ask about the .. different food pairings that can compliment each one!
